INTERPRETATION

west wall that encloses a small room in the north of F-North. room is in between the two larger rooms of the area F-north structure. the function of this entire area remains uncertain, ^{but} due to the monumentality of the walls and staircase to the south, the building probably had civic or religious significance. the room limited by the wall 5168 may have had particular significance, as it sits on the highest terrace, directly across from the staircase.
